

Worthy Sir Knights,
See below from the Master Jim DeLuccia:

Brothers,

On February 21st the Faithful Navigator of the Msgr. Peter B. O'Connor Assembly,

Joe De Masi's home burned and they lost everything that he and his wife Lady Nancy had.

Currently and sadly they are doing the Hotel merry-go-around and getting the Insurance Company runaround, so as all can imagine it also becomes a monetary crisis.

Gentlemen, as brothers and Knights of Columbus let us turn to our Founder Father Michael McGivney, one of his cornerstones is:

Mutual aid among members –
Knights supported one another in times of illness, hardship, and death.

Christian love in action –
McGivney believed faith had to be lived out concretely, especially through service to those in need.
I am asking you to share this with your Assemblies and keep the De Masi family in your prayers,

gift cards or cash donations send to my attention,

P.O. Box 282 Little Falls, NJ 07424.

Make any checks payable to FN Joe DeMasi.

Brothers they are in need and this is what Fraternity is all about!

"Where there is hatred, let me sow love.
Where there is injury, pardon.
Where there is doubt, faith."
